

Many Ways to Earn College Credit

1. Take a class here or elsewhere - U.S.A. or Abroad. | AP/IB/A Level/CLEP/Military Credits

2. Community and Public Service Program

- Earn credit by volunteering for a non-profit organization on campus or in the community.
- RSSW 190 – 35 hours of service – 1 Credit | RSSW 291 – 60 hours of service – 2 Credits
- RSSW 290 - 100 hours of service – 3 Credits | RSSW 390 – 100 hours of service – 3 Credits
- For more information, visit www.albany.edu/cpsp or go to Social Science Room 112

3. Applied Learning Internship

- UUNI-288 (Applied Learning Internship) is 1-credit. S/U Graded
- UUNI-289 (Advanced Applied Learning Internship) is 3-credits. S/U Graded
- Students must have an internship secured and a permission number in order to register.
- Eligibility: 2.0 GPA and a minimum of sophomore standing or higher.
- International students in F-1 status must obtain authorization to intern from the Center for International Education and Global Strategy.
- For more information, contact appliedlearning@albany.edu

4. University-Wide Internship Program

- UUNI 290 (1-4 Credits)
Open to those University at Albany matriculated students who will have sophomore standing or higher (have completed at least 24 graduation credits) prior to the beginning of the internship and who have a cumulative grade-point average of at least 2.00.
- UUNI 390 (1 – 15 Credits)
Open to those University at Albany matriculated students who will have junior standing or higher (have completed at least 56 graduation credits) prior to the beginning of the internship and who have a cumulative grade-point average of at least 2.00.
- For more information, contact the Office of the Vice Provost for Undergraduate Education located in Lecture Center Room 30 or visit www.albany.edu/undergraduateeducation/390_internship.php

5. Departmental Internships

- Many departments offer internships within students' majors. Check out the Internship Handbook created by Career Services: <http://www.albany.edu/career/internships/internshiphandbook.pdf>.

6. Undergraduate Research & Independent Study

- Several majors offer the opportunity to earn credit for working independently or alongside a professor. For example, the Psychology department offers APSY297 – Directed Study in Psychology for sophomores in any major to work on a supervised project; and APSY 397 for juniors. Check out the online college bulletin to see whether there is a similar course in your area of interest.

7. New York State Assembly Session Internship Program | Senate Session Assistants Program

- UUNI 391 (15 Credits)
- Eligibility: 56 Credits Completed; 2.50 GPA; All majors applicable.
- For more information contact the Office of the Vice Provost for Undergraduate Education located in Lecture Center Room 30 or visit http://www.albany.edu/undergraduateeducation/392_assembly.php

8. Peer Career Assistant – Center for Career and Professional Development

- Peer Career Advising (PCA) is an exciting on-campus applied-learning opportunity where students can develop professional skills and build their own resumes through helping their peers.
- For more information, visit www.albany.edu/career

9. Middle Earth Peer Assistance Program

- A CAPS program, the Middle Earth Peer Assistance Program provides telephone hotline, and online peer assistance, peer education, and peer career advisement services to assist students in meeting their educational goals and in coping with emotional, social, and other life issues that they face.
- For more information, visit the Counseling Center website at www.albany.edu/counseling_center.

10. Project SHAPE

- Project SHAPE is a peer education program that focuses on sexuality and sexual health promotion. Each year, participants offer over 120 programs and exhibits on sexual health on campus and throughout the community.
- For more information visit www.albany.edu/advocacycenter/shape.shtml